

Data Conversion and Migration

We are an industry leader in content preparation for organizations serious about mining, extracting and collecting data. Our goal is to assist companies in reorganizing and re-purposing data to be used in new applications and technologies.

We offer:

- Integration of actual systems with new ones
- Data conversion to new formats
- Migration of development platforms
- Source code conversion between differentes programming languages and platforms

Advantages of migration and data conversion

- To make good use of new technologies
- Lower licences cost
- Lower cost of maintenance and actualization
- Lower cost and risk when a new technology o product is needed
- Integration of legacy systems with new systems
