

Professional Services

With the purpose of cost-cutting, access to first-level technological resources without the need of big investments and to guarantee a Rapid Return of Investment (ROI), the externalization of areas or procedures related to the technologies is becoming one of the main aspects of investment from businesses.

For that, we have years of specialized experience and the commitment to answer the needs of our clients with professionalism and quality.

The professional services of Flozer will allow you to have free software specialized professionals without the need to have your own personal in your staff.

Optimize your costs and resources to the maximum

Subcontracting Flozer professionals reduces your personal handling costs, referring to selection, forming and retaining your personal. Added to the optimization of costs that having this personal only when it's required, it implies an important decrease of costs which additionally will allow you to concentrate in your core bussiness.

Specialized in Free Software
